

Life insurance and an online will service? That's something to celebrate!

Congratulations on taking the first step towards protecting your family with Foresters Financial™ life insurance.

Now take the next step to help secure their future with LawAssure,¹ our new complimentary member benefit.²

This online document preparation service makes it easier to help take care of important matters from the comfort of your own home including:

- Writing a will
- Making a power of attorney
- Preparing a healthcare directive

LawAssure uses pre-programmed logic and your answers to a series of questions to instantly customize and populate important documents.

Securely store and share important documents

LawAssure provides access to a secure online platform where you can store and print your documents. It's mobile friendly, so you can easily access your documents while on-the-go.

You can also use the service to securely share documents with anyone, such as a family member, a notary, or a trusted advisor.

LawAssure is just one of the many valuable benefits available to Foresters members.

Prepare for the future

Will

A will is a document that will allow you to dictate how personal assets should be distributed after passing away. A will can also include how dependent children should be cared for.

Power of attorney

Powers of attorney are created to give legal permission to someone else – such as a family member or friend – to manage financial affairs on your behalf if you are unable to do so yourself.

Healthcare directive

Healthcare directives are created to inform other people of your future medical care wishes.
