

Why buy travel insurance?

If an unexpected medical emergency should happen when travelling outside your home province, territory or country, getting treatment can cost thousands of dollars. Your government healthcare plans have limits on how much they'll cover, which can leave you holding the bulk of the bills.

Here's how Emergency Hospital & Medical travel insurance can help:

If you...	We can help with...
Catch the stomach flu from tasting local exotic foods	Finding a facility to treat you and paying your medical bills
Need to be taken to the hospital quickly for treatment	Arranging an ambulance to carry you to the hospital
Only know how to say "yes" and "no" in the local language	24/7 access to multi-lingual emergency assistance
Need accommodations for your travelling companion during your treatment	Covering unexpected out-of-pocket expenses
Want to continue your trip after your emergency	Travel arrangements to get you back on track
